President of Mexico Vicente Fox visits Calgary

Mayor Bronconnier greeted President Vicente Fox upon his arrival in Calgary on Thursday, September 29th.

President Fox, also accompanied by 30 senior-level businessmen and members of his cabinet, arrived in Calgary for a two day visit to meet with local leaders in the transport, mining and energy sectors. President Fox also met with University of Calgary President Dr. Harvey Weingarten and representatives from the Institute for Sustainable Energy, Environment and Economy who are researching improvements to pipeline technology.

Fox left Calgary for Vancouver on Friday where he was scheduled to meet with the Vancouver Board of Trade and Prime Minister Paul Martin.
