Mayor Bronconnier welcomes three prominent names to Calgary Business Hall of Fame

August 30, 2005

(Calgary) - In preparation for its 2nd Annual Gala Induction Ceremonies, presented by TransCanada Corporation, The Calgary Business Hall of Fame today announced its 2005 laureate nominees. The following three new members were announced at a Press Conference in Calgary:

- Mr. Richard F. Haskayne, O.C., F.C.A.
- Mr. Harley Hotchkiss, O.C., A.O.E
- Mr. Frederick C. Mannix, O.C., LL.D.

"Laureate induction into the Calgary Business Hall of Fame is a lifetime achievement award for individuals who have made a major, positive impact in and around Calgary," said Shirley Philips, President and CEO of Junior Achievement of Southern Alberta. "I know our Board of Directors and staff are proud that these individuals will be inducted in the Calgary Business Hall of Fame in October," she added.

Established in 2004, the Calgary Business Hall of Fame honours men and women, past and present, for their outstanding contributions to business, entrepreneurship and philanthropy – role models who inspire young people to succeed.

The new members will each be formally welcomed into the Calgary Business Hall of Fame at the 2005 Induction Ceremonies and Gala Dinner on Wednesday, October 26th at the Hyatt Regency Calgary. Once again, Ron MacLean of CBC Television will be the Master of Ceremonies. Net proceeds will be used to deliver innovative Junior Achievement programs emphasizing the benefits of business and entrepreneurship to more young people in southern Alberta.

The 2005 Calgary Business Hall of Fame Inductees will be joining a distinguished list of previous Inductees: Mr. Jim Gray, O.C., A.O.E., LL.D., Mr. J.R. (Bud) McCaig, C.M., LL.D. and Mr. Daryl K. (Doc) Seaman, O.C., LL.D.

The 2005 Inductees will be included with the past Calgary Business Hall of Fame Inductees in a permanent exhibit in the East Tower Lobby of Bankers Hall.
