

Calgary's Millionth Citizen Welcomed

July 25, 2006

CALGARY- Calgary's millionth citizen is named Dashiell "Dash" Waite born to proud parents Jessica and Sean. Dash was born just after midnight at the Rocky View Hospital. Dash has blue eyes and weighs 9 lbs 10oz, and mom and baby are both happy and healthy. This is Jessica and Sean's first child.

Dash and his parents were visited by Mayor Dave Bronconnier at an informal birthday party at the Rocky View Hospital this afternoon including cake, balloons and lots of presents for Calgary's newest resident. Mayor Bronconnier officially declared Dashiell to be Calgary's Millionth Citizen with a proclamation for the family, and a "White Hat" for Dash.

"On behalf of all Calgarians, our best wishes go to Jessica and Sean on the birth of their first child. And to Dash, welcome—I'm proud to officially proclaim him our One Millionth Calgarian," said the Mayor.

Corporate well wishers joined the Mayor in welcoming Calgary's latest citizen. These well wishers include: The City of Calgary, VISTEK, WestJet, RBC, Hyatt Downtown, Calgary Co-op, Enmax, Calgary Stampede and Exhibition and the Calgary Flames.
